

A close-up photograph of a person's hands holding a dark grey credit card. The card has the words "Credit Card" at the top, a card number "1234 5678 9876 5432", the name "JOHN CARDHOLDER", and an expiration date "12/18". The background is a blurred image of a person in a blue shirt.

Accepting credit cards doesn't have to be expensive

Our primary goal is to help your business succeed.

We understand that a “one size fits all” approach doesn’t work. That’s why we provide an exhaustive list of payment processing services, including credit and debit card processing, check guarantee and conversion, automated recurring payments, e-commerce, gift and loyalty cards and industry-specific payment and accounting services. From the traditional standalone counter-top terminals to cloud-based virtual solutions to Apple Pay and the latest in mobile technology, Your bank and FiNet are dedicated to making sure you are using the best possible processing option to grow your business.

Best of all, we’ll stand behind our product with the same level of personalized service you’ve grown to expect from your bank.
